

ITS LAST DAY TO BE BUSY

Virginia's "Long Parliament" Will End Its Sittings and Adjourn Finally To-day.

THE LEGISLATURE'S LAST DAY

Three Important Bills to Be Disposed of by General Assembly and Long Sitting Probable.

The General Assembly of Virginia, known as the General Assembly of 1903, has been adjourned by the Constitutional Convention so that it must be known as the Legislature of 1901-02-03-04, will pass into history with the midnight chime of the bells to-night. Under the old Constitution the present Assembly convened on the second Wednesday in December, 1901, about five weeks after the election at which its members were chosen. Had that constitution continued as the organic law of the State, the life of the body would have expired by limitation on December 15, 1902. The new Constitution having changed the date of the assembling of the General Assembly and recognizing that much legislation consequent upon the change of the organic law of the State would be necessary, it extended the life of the Assembly until January 1, 1904. When the new one began sitting, on January 13th, necessarily means until midnight on January 12th. Owing to the volume of work and the further fact that the two houses became involved in a hostile attitude on several measures of importance, the session was extended into 1904.

HAVE WORKED NEARLY A YEAR. The Assembly has sat in all since December, 1901, more than 235 days, or rather the per diem for that many days. The two houses have been actually in session almost as many.

To-day, the last day on which the "Long Parliament" of Virginia will sit, will be marked by sessions of both houses, and the indications are that they will be long sessions. The House will meet at 10 A. M., and the Senate at noon. The Senate sat yesterday until 5 P. M., after the House adjourned for the day about 1 P. M. The Senate completely cleared its calendar and the House had already disposed of its own.

There are at least three important measures on which the two houses must pass finally to-day. The Edmundson General Road bill, ordered to conference for the second time, is yet to be finally adopted or rejected. The conference on the part of the two houses consumed much of the afternoon. A bill was agreed upon by the two houses to-day, and whether or not it will be accepted by either or both cannot be forecast with certainty. Both houses made concessions but the former report of the House committee was not accepted. Just what the conferees agreed upon was not given out in advance of the report of the committee.

EMINENT DOMAIN BILL UP. The Senate yesterday conferred on the eminent domain bill met at 5 P. M. yesterday, in the Senate Chamber and sat until nearly 11 P. M., reaching an agreement, which, however, Messrs. Edmundson and Duke, two members of the committee, declined to give out for publication last night. The positions of the two houses were irreconcilably apart, and the only way they could have reached an agreement would have been on giving up of concessions which involved the sacrifice of something on each side. The report will be submitted in both houses to-day.

GENERAL CORPORATION BILL YET. The Senate yesterday finished consideration of the House bill in relation to public service corporations, with a number of amendments thereto. It was late in the afternoon, and the action could not be communicated to the House, that body having adjourned. It will reach the House to-day, and it is practically certain that the House will accept the amendments. The Senate will ask for a conference. The Senate will, of course, agree, and conferees will be named. It will be too late to permit of detailed consideration of the amendments by the conference, and it is probable that it will be by an agreement on the part of the conferees. It is within the range of probability that the Senate will stand by its amendments and that the bill will fail, but that body has shown no disposition to be arbitrary or obstinate, and now that the bill and amendments are before it, it is likely that a measure will be passed in the closing hours of the Assembly.

SOME ODDS AND ENDS. These three bills and one in relation to expenditures for the improvement of the State chamber, yet to be considered by the House, are about all to engage the attention of the two houses. Allowing the afternoon for conferences, it is likely that the final session will extend into the evening, and that adjournment will be late. It will not come until near midnight. It will be necessary to have a caucus of the two branches of the new Legislature to choose officers, and this will probably be held some time during the evening. As there is little contest over these, the caucus will be brief. In the morning, the House caucus takes up the Norfolk county case. It will hardly undertake to decide this, however, at this evening's caucus, for the reason that time is lacking to go into that fierce quarrel.

A HARD WORKING BODY. With all the criticisms made of it for sins of omission and commission, the General Assembly of Virginia which passes into history to-day has been one of the hardest working bodies ever assembled here.

Outside of the work of Code revision, appropriations to hospitals and an extensive but fruitless discussion of oyster legislation, several appropriations for monuments and statuary, and some statutes demonstrated to be desirable by experience, there has been little new legislation. The election laws have come forth unscathed from the scrutiny. While there have been many and large appropriations, they have not been wasteful, unless the expenditure appropriations may be so classed. Large sums went to providing adequate cells at the penitentiary.

To strengthen a weak stomach, restore the appetite or promote sound sleep use a trial of the Bitters. It never fails, as thousands have already testified. It also cures indigestion, constipation, heartburn, dyspepsia and Liver Complaints.

BOARD IN MANCHESTER

Aldermen to Meet in Regular Session This Evening.

DEATH OF MR. W. R. BASS

Dalmo Klan Installs Officers.
Judge Hancock Continues
Very Ill.

Manchester Bureau, Times-Dispatch.
No. 1102 Hull Street.

The Board of Aldermen will meet in regular session to-night at 8 o'clock in the Council Chamber. A large amount of business of importance will be transacted.

The report of the Finance Committee will be received and the other committees will make known their wants for the coming year.

Next week the Finance Committee will begin work on the budget for the present year.

BAD WEATHER. Pedestrians were "scarce articles" on the streets last night and as a consequence possible accidents from falling on the slippery sidewalks were averted. The weather was "mazy" and all who could do so kept to their homes.

Rev. Landan Green was appropriately and officially installed as pastor of Oak Grove Church Sunday afternoon. The pastors who took part in the services, as mentioned in Sunday's paper, were Revs. H. C. Criffin, Hepburn, W. W. Skik, E. V. Baldy, Boyles, Bendles and Woodward.

Rev. Mr. Green, in his address, invoked the aid of his congregation in the work of the church. He was a native and long resident of Manchester, and in his field of work he has been very successful.

In going to the Gill Brothers fire the other night the firemen's torches were lost from the wagon. Any one finding them, please return them to the engine house.

DEATH OF W. R. BASS. Mr. W. R. Bass, a native and long resident of Manchester, died at 8 o'clock last night at his home on Bollingbrook Road, Chelsea Hill, aged fifty.

He leaves a wife and several children. The funeral will be from Fairmount Baptist Church at 2 o'clock to-morrow morning, and the burial will be in Maury Cemetery.

Mr. Bass was a member of Indiana, Ohio, and Kentucky, and of the Council, J. O. U. M. of Manchester.

DALMO KLAN'S OFFICERS. Dalmo Klan, instituted in Manchester last night, with the following officers: Imperial high potentate, G. L. Hubbard; T. B. Slaughter; prophet, G. L. Hubbard; Oriental guide, E. K. Sampson; grand klavern, J. O. U. M. of Manchester; grand klavern, J. O. U. M. of Manchester; grand klavern, J. O. U. M. of Manchester.

PERSONAL AND BRIEFS. Judge Hancock continues extremely ill at his home in Chestnut street. Mayor Maurice died at 10 o'clock yesterday morning, after a long illness.

A leap year tea will be given at the home of Mrs. Bradley on Friday night for the benefit of the City Mission. Mr. H. V. Baldwin and Miss Bessie Bradburn will be the hosts.

Congressman Flood Here. Congressman H. D. Flood arrived in the city yesterday from Washington and was city friends in the hotel lobbies and clubs last night. Mr. Flood is looking unusually well and is serene in the confidence of re-election. Friends who met him last night, however, were disappointed to find that he was not accompanied by a formidable number of friends.

Mrs. Button Out of Danger. Colonel Joseph Button, clerk of the Senate and one of the most widely known of the younger men of the State, returned to the city last night from his home in Appomattox, where he was summoned some days ago, owing to the dangerous illness of his mother, widow of John H. Button, of Appomattox. Colonel Button reports that his mother, who has been ill of pneumonia, is now past the crisis of the illness and he is hopeful of her early recovery.

Norfolk County Factions Coming. Members of the opposing factions of Norfolk county politics are arriving in the city for the election of delegates to the admission of Messrs. Owens and Parker, the Fusion members. The Straightouts or regular wing of the party is represented by County Chairman John W. Jones, of Berkley. Mr. Hugh Johnston, editor of the Straightout organ, Messrs. J. H. Heard, A. B. Carnoy, John A. Codd and J. P. Hutchings, and others are already here and others will arrive to-day.

To Seek a School Site.—Speaker Ryan has named as the members on the part of the House of Delegates of the joint legislative committee to select a site for the proposed State female normal and industrial school, Messrs. R. B. Lee, of Fairfax; L. P. Stearns, of Newport News, and Stafford, of Giles. The Senate members named several days ago by President Willard. Two members of the House committee are from the same congressional district.

For Nine-Hour Law. Hon. W. H. Gunn, one of the new members of the House from Norfolk city, who is a strong labor leader, has a bill which he will offer to establish the nine-hour day system in Virginia. Mr. Gunn says he is disposed to be conservative and will not ask for the eight-hour law, which has been adopted by the national government.

A PALACE IN WHEELS

Atlantic Coast Line Florida Special Passes Through Richmond.

A MOST LUXURIOUS TRAIN

Modern Ingenuity Is Taxed to Make It the Finest That Goes
From North to South.

With its running gear covered with snow from the wintry north and with the interior as warm and luxurious as modern invention could make it, a palace on wheels passed through Richmond last night, like a white ribbon cutting a way through the darkness of the north to the Land of Flowers. It was the New York and Florida Special of the Atlantic Coast Line, on its inaugural trip opening the annual service of the Coast Line, taking the rich tourists to the balmy climes of the South.

The elements could not have combined to make a more striking contrast. Filled with electric lights, heated by steam and abounding with all the comforts of the most luxurious home, the special sped smoothly along, while without the snow was driven by a cold northwest wind, whirling and twisting among the wheels of the fast flying train and whirling in eddies in its wake as it sped through the darkness to the sunny clime of the flowered South.

The train was not exactly on schedule time when it reached the Capital of the Confederacy, but those in charge of the train predicted that the destination would be reached on the minute, and that the temporary guests would reach their haven of rest at the exact minute which they calculated on when they read the schedule.

MOVING PALACE. Nothing more luxurious and palatial could be imagined than this moving train of six coaches and baggage car. With scarcely a jar the train moved along, and when it passed Richmond at the dead hour of night, few besides the newspaper men, who were special guests of the company, were aware of their whereabouts. Most of them were in the land of nod, dreaming peacefully and as comfortably as they would have been in their own homes.

The equipment of the moving palace is all that modern ingenuity can contrive, for the train is a masterpiece of engineering. A solid vestibule train, lighted throughout with electricity, kept at a comfortable temperature and supplied with all the comforts that the most fastidious could desire, the tourist of the North who wishes to seek the more temperate clime of the South can almost enter the Land of Flowers when he boards the Florida Special.

The train consists of six coaches, with dining car, one coach for baggage, a splendid compartment car, sleepers and observation car. In the latter were the guests of the company and other passengers. Their comfort was expected to be maintained throughout the trip, and they were to be kept in the land of nod, dreaming peacefully and as comfortably as they would have been in their own homes.

The arrangement and details of the train are perfect. In the baggage coach is an electric light plant, complete in all details, which supplies light to every car. In the dining car, which is the most comfortable of the train, the guests are kept in the land of nod, dreaming peacefully and as comfortably as they would have been in their own homes.

WELL PATRONIZED. The patronage of the train on the first day augurs well for the business to be done this season. There was a goodly company aboard when the special pulled into the Sixth-Street depot in the National Capital and there many more boarded the train.

In the dining car a beautiful scene was presented, with fashionably dressed women and equally as well dressed men sitting down to tables clothed in immaculate linen. Cut glass and silver service under the electric lights and the sound of gay laughter could be heard above the scarcely perceptible rumble of the fast flying train.

The train left New York at 2:10 in the afternoon and will arrive at 8 o'clock in the morning. The balmy climate of Florida will not be more comfortable to those who alight than the temperature of the cars and the resorts of the South no more luxurious than the moving palace which brought them from the wintry North.

FLORIDA FLYER. The Seaboard Inaugurates Special Service South.

The splendidly equipped, vestibuled "Florida Flyer" of the Seaboard A. R. Line passed through Richmond last night on its way from New York to St. Augustine.

The train was the first of the winter season for the wealthy Northerners south-bound.

Every detail is evidence of comfort and luxury to the winter swallows. The cars are complete in every detail, from the sleeping and dining cars, in the dining cars the Seaboard inaugurates the south-bound traveler. The service is equal to that of the best hotels in New York.

On the train were some of the wealthiest of New Yorkers, headed for Florida. From Richmond Superintendent C. H. Hix and District Passenger Agent H. S. Leard went to Washington yesterday afternoon and met District Passenger Agent J. W. Cole, to make the trip from the Capital to Richmond. They found the "Flyer" with every berth and compartment occupied.

On the face of a blinding snow storm the Seaboard's "Flyer" made schedule time and managed to carry the first batch of the winter swallows South.

Two Small Bankruptcies. Petitions in bankruptcy were filed yesterday in the office of the clerk of the United States District Court as follows: J. A. Davis, of Richmond, a trainman; liabilities $250; assets nothing.

A. C. Davis, of Richmond, a trainman; liabilities $250; assets nothing.

ALL WANT CONVENTION

New York, Chicago and St. Louis Bidding High for the Democrats.

WINDY CITY MUCH FAVORED

Offers to Pay Expenses Up to Forty-five Thousand and Success Predicted.

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 11.—Convention boomers were much in evidence at the Shoreham Hotel to-night. The National Democratic Committee will meet there to-morrow to select the city in which to hold the next national convention, Chicago, St. Louis and New York, are active applicants for convention honors. Among disinterested observers the impression prevails that Chicago is the choice of a majority of the committee now on the ground.

Adams A. Goodrich, chairman of the Chicago Committee, declared to-night his strong belief that the convention would go to Chicago. The Chicago committee, he said, would offer to pay all the necessary expenses up to an amount not exceeding $45,000. The committee, he said, will guarantee that the hotel rates shall be reasonable and not above the regular rates of Chicago hotels.

The devotion which will make an effort to secure the convention for New York, Chicago and St. Louis, he said, will guarantee that the hotel rates shall be reasonable and not above the regular rates of Chicago hotels.

NATURE'S GREATEST CURE FOR MEN AND WOMEN

Swamp-Root is the Most Perfect Healer and Natural Aid to the Kidneys, Liver and Bladder Ever Discovered.

SWAMP-ROOT SAVED MY LIFE.

I received promptly the genuine bottle of your great kidney remedy, Swamp-Root.
I had an awful pain in my back over the kidneys.

now, the disease advanced until the face looked pale and yellow, puffy or dark circles under the eyes, feet swell, and sometimes the heart acts badly.
There is comfort in knowing that Dr.
Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy, fulfills every wish in quickly relieving such troubles.
It corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to get up many times during the night to urinate. In taking this wonderful new discovery, Swamp-Root, you afford natural help to Nature, for Swamp-Root is the most perfect healer and gentle aid to the kidneys that has ever been discovered.

bring anxiety and trouble hard to bear; disappointment seems to follow every effort of physicians in our behalf, and remedies we try have little or no effect. In many such cases serious mistakes are made in doctoring, and not knowing what the disease is or what makes us sick. Kind nature warns us by certain symptoms, which are unmis-in the cast. The play is "The Prince of Heaven," which is the title for this week.

The play has many of the exciting features of a good melodrama. The cast is well up in the line as yet, for there were many hittings in the play. The play is a good one, and is a good one.

Swamp-Root a Blessing to Woman

My kidneys and bladder gave me great trouble for over two months and I suffered untold misery. I became weak, emaciated and very much run down. I had great difficulty in retaining my urine and was obliged to pass water very often night and day. After I had used a sample bottle of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, sent me on my request, I experienced relief and I immediately bought of my druggist two large bottles and immediately taking it regularly, I am now as well as ever. Swamp-Root cured me entirely. I can now stand on my feet all day without any but symptoms whatever.

Swamp-Root has proved a blessing to me.

Gratefully yours,
MRS. E. AUSTIN.

Christians to forsake entirely the "an-
